1 AFTERNOON SESSION, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2019

2 (Proceedings commenced at 12:34 p.m.)

3 - - -

4 DEPUTY CLERK: All rise.

12:39:53 5 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon.

6 Please be seated.

7 All right. Well, we're here for the final pretrial in 8 the opioid MDL, first bellwether trial, Summit County, 9 Cuyahoga County, against various defendants.

12:40:16 10 So the lawyers, parties, are here. We have a number 11 of matters I wanted to cover.

12 All right. We're set to begin jury selection 13 tomorrow. We'll have 50, the first 50 jurors brought in.
14 The jury department will pick them at random from the 12:40:59 15 roughly 150 people that we have left.

16 The Court and the parties will know this afternoon 17 which 50, and then the order will be determined randomly 18 tomorrow morning, and we'll -- that will be the order.

19 If we question jurors privately in chambers, we'll 12:41:30 20 just have one lawyer for each of the two plaintiffs and one 21 lawyer for each of the defendants. There will be no 22 parties, no consultants, just -- I don't want to overwhelm 23 the jurors.

24 There were many motions in limine filed, and I'm going 12:41:57 25 to summarize my rulings now.

1 I'll try to be efficient, and I will say at the outset 2 that my main job in this trial, once we pick a fair and 3 impartial jury, is to have the same strike zone for each 4 side. Probably no one is going to like my strike zone, but 12:42:23 5 I worked very hard to have the same strike zone for each 6 side. And I will say at the outset, I'm going to have a 7 very wide strike zone when it comes to the parties 8 introducing evidence about what the federal government, DEA, 9 FDA, did or did not do. That's an essential part of the 12:42:49 10 story, the narrative.

11 The facts are the facts. Each side is going to use 12 those facts in their narrative for the jury and for public 13 consumption, and I'm going to let both sides have a great 14 deal of latitude on that. We're obviously not going to have 12:43:09 15 witnesses purporting to tell the jury what the law is, but 16 in terms of what the DEA and FDA did or didn't do, and what 17 implications that would have, I'm going to let both sides 18 have at it.

19 All right. I'm going to start with a series of 12:43:34 20 motions filed by defendant Henry Schein.

21 Schein's number 1, pleading 2645, is denied. But it 22 is important that if the plaintiffs or witnesses use the 23 term defendants, if they don't mean it to mean all of the 24 defendants in this case, they've got to be specific, because 12:44:10 25 it isn't fair just to lump everyone together. That isn't

1 fair, and it's going to be confusing.

2 So the witnesses and the lawyers need to be careful 3 about that. If they do mean all of the defendants in this 4 case, fine; but if it's less than all, then they need to be 12:44:28 5 specific.

6 Schein number 2 is also denied.

7 Schein number 3 is denied without prejudice, but the 8 Schein defendants may object to any specific evidence or 9 argument that they feel is factually inaccurate and/or lacks 12:44:56 10 foundation.

11 Schein number 4 is denied. That relates to 12 medications distributed by Schein to Dr. Brian Heim. That 13 evidence can come in.

14 Schein number 5 is denied, reference's to Dr. Heim's 12:45:19 15 indictment.

16 Schein number 6, references to Dr. Harper, is also 17 denied.

18 Schein number 7 is denied.

19 Schein number 8 is also denied. It may be relevant.

12:45:40 20 Evidence about drugs distributed outside of Summit County 21 may also be denied.

22 Schein 9 is also denied. It references the DEA fines, 23 investigations, or admonitions. It's denied without 24 prejudice. If defendant Schein thinks that something is 12:45:59 25 relevant or extremely prejudicial, they can raise that 1 again.

2 Schein number 10 references the cease and desist
3 letter, is also denied.

12:46:23

4 And Schein number 11 is denied as to statute of 5 limitations.

6 And Schein number 12 is denied, references to Henry 7 Schein Animal Health.

8 All right, turning to Walgreens motions in limine.

12:46:49

9 Number 1, evidence or argument about Walgreens'
10 ownership interest in AmerisourceBergen is denied.

11 Number two, evidence relating to Florida DEA
12 enforcement action and related settlement, that's denied.
13 That goes with my general comments.

12:47:13

14 Number 3, references to DEA witness Joseph Rannazzisi
15 as the 60-Minute man. I'm going to allow brief accurate 16 references to the fact that Mr. Rannazzisi, who was a former 17 DEA deputy administrator, did appear on 60 Minutes and other 18 news reports because that happened, but the plaintiffs can't 19 overemphasize or dwell on these facts, and they're not to 20 refer to him at all as the 60-Minute man unless that's a 21 nickname that -- in fact, I don't think -- I'm not going to 22 allow that at all. It's not relevant that someone may have 23 called him the 60-Minute man, so he'll just be Mr.
24 Rannazzisi. And if he appeared on 60 Minutes, quite 12:48:02 25 frankly, either side can raise that, and the defendants may 1 use it to impeach him.

2 All right. Plaintiffs' omnibus motion in limine. I'm 3 going to grant the motion. There's not going to 4 be -- number one, there's not going to be any evidence or 12:48:24 5 testimony about attorneys' fee arrangements or how 6 litigation expenses are paid, or anything about that. That 7 is not relevant.

8 Number two, the plaintiffs have withdrawn their motion 9 to preclude testimony as to when parties selected, hired, or 12:48:49 10 were considering hiring attorneys. I will grant the second 11 part of the motion, any testimony as to the actual 12 arrangements or details of how attorneys are being paid or 13 how they're being retained; but when a Summit County or 14 Cuyahoga official retained or considered retaining an 12:49:22 15 attorney may be relevant.

16 Number three is denied as moot. The parties have 17 worked that out, as with number four.

18 Number five, I'm granting in part. There will not be 19 any reference to how attorneys for either side are being 12:49:51 20 paid, how much they're being paid, how they travel. It is 21 always admissible to ask an expert witness how much he or 22 she is being paid directly or indirectly. Any form of 23 compensation is fair game.

24 And a mode of transportation, if one is, you know, 12:50:14 25 flying lavishly to or from court or around, and where

1 they're getting the money to do that, parties can probe
2 that. So it's fair game for witnesses, expert witnesses, 3 it's not for attorneys.

4 Number six, reference to defendants' philanthropy or 12:50:38 5 good deeds. Plaintiffs' motion is overbroad because it 6 would preclude the defendants from saying anything about 7 themselves.

8 So defendants are allowed to introduce themselves, 9 describe accurately what they do, but evidence that parties 12:51:04 10 and/or their employees are good citizens, do good deeds in 11 the community, such as providing scholarships, community 12 service, that's not relevant for the corporation or for any 13 individual. That has nothing to do with this case, unless 14 somehow someone feels that something specific that an 12:51:25 15 employee is doing is relevant; but as a general rule, it's 16 not, so that part is granted.

17 Number seven, reference to any alleged malpractice 18 claims involving the parties' designated experts. I can't 19 decide this in the abstract, so it may be relevant as to a 12:51:44 20 particular witness. We'll have to deal with it as it comes.

21 Number eight, it's granted in part. The 22 defendants -- well, I mean, I think it actually is fair game 23 to call or refer or use expert reports of the other side if 24 they were noticed in the litigation but not called, so I'm 12:52:15 25 not sure what this refers to. If they weren't noticed,

1 neither side can refer to the other sides' experts that 2 weren't noticed; but if they were noticed and then a side 3 decides not to call them, the other side is free to use 4 them.

12:52:39 5 But if the witness isn't being called or the report is 6 not being used by either side, the fact that there might be 7 a malpractice claim against the witness is irrelevant. So 8 you can't just generally say, well, the plaintiffs had on 9 their list someone, and so-and-so has a malpractice claim, 12:53:00 10 because if the person is not testifying, it's irrelevant.

11 All right. Number nine is denied without prejudice.
12 People can use, you know -- can use technology to present 13 their testimony or documents.

14 Number ten was resolved. It's moot, the parties 12:53:23 15 worked that out.

16 Obviously, number 11 is granted. The reference to 17 what motions in limine the parties filed or didn't file or 18 the Court's ruling is not relevant to anything.

19 Number 12, related to punitive damages, is resolved as 12:53:43 20 moot because the plaintiffs aren't seeking punitive damages, 21 so there obviously won't be any reference to them.

22 Number 13 is granted. Defendants may not argue or 23 suggest that the Controlled Substances Act and its 24 implementing regulations have not always imposed the duties 12:54:08 25 that the Court has already determined, but this ruling does

1 not prevent any defendant from presenting evidence that 2 DEA's guidance has been inconsistent and/or shifted over 3 time, or to produce direct evidence of communications from 4 DEA to that defendant as to anything the defendant was 12:54:35 5 doing.

6 Number 14 is granted. I'm going to exclude any 7 evidence or argument that plaintiffs' claims or verdicts 8 would interfere and/or negatively impact the pharmaceutical 9 industry and/or the government's regulation of the 12:54:54 10 pharmaceutical industry.

11 Number 15, reference to the DEA approving or endorsing 12 a particular defendant's suspicious order monitoring 13 program. Again, this goes to what I said, so this is denied 14 without prejudice. If the defendants have documents from 12:55:16 15 the DEA relevant to one of their programs, they can 16 introduce it.

17 16 is denied. That goes along with what I said, this 18 is a suggestion or argument that DEA's failure to sanction 19 or initiate enforcement. Both sides are free to bring in 12:55:48 20 evidence about what DEA did or didn't do with their 21 enforcement actions or their investigations and ask the jury 22 to draw conclusions therefrom. That's fair game for both 23 sides. So that was really 16 and 17 go together in that 24 regard.

12:56:12 25 All right. 18 is granted, any reference to any award

1 of damages might adversely affect the ability of any member
2 of the jury or the public to purchase or have available
3 medication. We're obviously not going to have any testimony 4 or speculation on that.

12:56:44 5 19 is granted for the same reason. We're not going to 6 have any testimony or speculation that a judgment might have 7 an adverse affect on any defendant's ability to compete in 8 the marketplace.

9 The same with 20. We're not going to have any 12:57:00 10 testimony about that any verdict might adversely impact any 11 defendant's incentive or ability to develop new drugs.

12 21 is also granted for the same reason.

13 22 is denied without prejudice. I can't address this 14 in the abstract. If someone is trying to use deposition 12:57:33 15 testimony from a deposition where the other side didn't have 16 a -- wasn't present or didn't have a fair opportunity to be 17 there, I'll have to address it in advance of that witness.
18 So we'll have to take it up on a case-by-case basis, 19 witness-by-witness basis.

12:57:53 20 23, relative to learned intermediary, is granted in 21 part. The defendants may not argue or suggest they 22 satisfied the duty to warn because of the mere existence of 23 the learned intermediary doctrine. But of course defendants 24 may argue that their warnings to doctors were accurate and 12:58:15 25 that whatever happened is the doctor's responsibility after

1 that. That's part of their defense. They can defend 2 against these claims using that if they wish.

3 Number 24 is denied. This relates to alleged failure
4 to mitigate. If the defendants want to make that argument 12:58:36 5 or evidence, they can do so.

6 25 is, obviously, going to be granted. We're not 7 going to have the personal identification data of any 8 children or any children in child protective custody.

9 And 26 is granted, too. We're not going to have 12:58:57 10 testimony or evidence about individually-identifiable health 11 information or medical records of any individual person. If 12 someone somehow feels it's become relevant then to -- notice 13 the Court in advance, and I'll address that.

14 Number 27, reference of identity of any undercover law 12:59:24 15 enforcement personnel. I agree with plaintiffs, that 16 everyone has got to take reasonable steps to protect the 17 identity of undercover law enforcement personnel, but I'll 18 need to know that in advance, because a lot of these people 19 have testified in other proceedings, and if they have, well, 12:59:46 20 there's no more confidentiality.

21 The same with number 28, about reference to 22 individuals in the Cuyahoga County Jail. I'm not sure how 23 it's relevant, but we'll take that up on a specific basis.

24 29, obviously there's not going to be any evidence 13:00:14 25 about allegations of any county corruption, but if there's 1 actual evidence of it and it's bearing on this case, well, 2 then, that may be relevant.

3 All right. Number 30, I think, both sides agree that 4 the fact of the grand jury proceeding is inadmissible. So 13:00:44 5 there won't be any reference to a grand jury investigation, 6 but if there are underlying facts that led to an 7 investigation, that's fair game for either side.

8 31 is granted as unopposed.

9 32 is granted as unopposed.

13:01:08 10 33, again, is granted. We're not going to refer to 11 general investigations of people. That's not relevant. If 12 it led to an indictment and the charge is somehow relevant, 13 then so be it.

14 34 represented about podcasts or media coverage
13:01:30 15 regarding Cuyahoga County courts, that's -- I don't 16 understand exactly what plaintiffs are trying to preclude or 17 what the defendants are trying to admit, so that's denied 18 without prejudice.

19 35, reference to any investigation regarding the death
13:01:51 20 of Aniya Day Garrett. I'm not going to issue a blanket 21 exclusion of this. I'm not sure how it's going to be 22 relevant. So before someone introduces that, they're going 23 to have to make a showing that it's relevant.

24 36, again, relates to corruption in Summit County.
13:02:17 25 The same thing, there's going to be no testimony about

1 allegations. If there's evidence, actual evidence of 2 corruption, it may be relevant.

3 37, deaths of an individual while in the Summit County 4 Jail. That's denied without prejudice. Again, I fail to 13:02:38 5 see how it would be relevant.

6 All right. Turning to Cardinal's motions in limine.

7 Number 1, evidence concerning 14,000 suspicious orders 8 which Cardinal did not report and did not ship, that's 9 denied.

13:02:54 10 Number 2 is denied, evidence and argument containing 11 an interest in gossip e-mail.

12 Number 3, evidence based on data produced by Cardinal 13 for the years 1996 through 2005 are denied, but all sides 14 are to be careful so we're not comparing apples with oranges
13:03:19 15 and drawing conclusions therefrom. So if you have 20 years 16 of data, you can't say it leads to the same inference as 10 17 years, or the numbers are equivalent.

18 Turning to Track One defendants' omnibus motions in 19 limine. Number 1, evidence or argument concerning future 13:03:42 20 damages, that's granted, because plaintiffs can't seek 21 future damages.

22 Number 2 is denied without prejudice. Plaintiffs can 23 introduce individualized evidence of description and 24 shipments, but only if it was produced by the plaintiffs 13:04:08 25 during discovery.

1           Number 3, I can't rule on these in the abstract, so 2           it's denied without prejudice.

3           Number 4, lay and hearsay testimony about prescription
4           opioids being a gateway. It's denied as to factual 13:04:46 5           testimony, testimony about facts is allowed. I'm not going 6           to allow fact witnesses to give expert testimony, however.

7           Number 5, evidence concerning lobbying, that's denied 8           without prejudice. It may be relevant. Obviously, everyone 9           is free to lobby state, local, federal officials. And 13:05:14 10           there's nothing wrong about that, but it may be relevant to 11           go to intent, or it may be relevant -- again, there's a wide 12           open strike zone about what the federal government did or 13           didn't do, and it may be relevant as to why the federal 14           government did or didn't do something.

13:05:31 15           Number 6 I'm denying. Shipments to areas of the 16           country outside of Summit and Cuyahoga County may be 17           relevant.

18           I'm denying number 7.

19           I'm denying number 8. We've already addressed number 13:05:52 20           eight with Daubert rulings. I don't need to do it again.

21           Number 9, denying.

22           And 10, people can use charts and data.

23           Number 11, I'm granting in part and denying in part.
24           Evidence as to defendants' overall financial conditions, 13:06:19 25           sales, revenues, are not relevant. Defendants' evidence as

1 to revenues and profitability directly relating to opioid 2 sales may be relevant.

3 Number 12 is denied without prejudice. I think it's 4 too broad, but, again, I don't think -- we're not going to 13:06:47 5 have individual witnesses being asked about their personal 6 feelings about the opioid crisis or who is responsible. That 7 would be improper questioning.

8 Number 13 was resolved by the parties, so that's moot.

9 14, I'm granting it. Some of the defendants will have 13:07:12 10 corporate representatives at counsel table, some won't.
11 Some may have them some days, some may have them not other 12 days. We're not going to have any comment. It's not 13 relevant whether a corporate representative is here every 14 day or some of the days, so we're granting that.

13:07:31 15 All right. McKesson's motions in limine.

16 All right. Number 1 is denied without prejudice.
17 It's too broad. I'll deal with it as it comes up.

18 Number 2 is denied. Evidence relating to the U.S.
19 House Energy and Commerce Committee investigation, that may 13:07:55 20 be relevant.

21 Number 3, nationwide trends in drug deaths may be 22 relevant.

23 Number 4, evidence or argument about allegations 24 contained in letters from the DEA or DOJ. They may be 13:08:15 25 admissible, so I'm denying that.

1           Number 5, I'm denying that, but additional rulings may 2       be made via objections to deposition designations.

3           Number 6, testimony, documents, relating to McKesson's 4       relationship with CVS and Rite Aid. That's denied, it may 13:08:49 5       be relevant.

6           Turning to distributors' omnibus motions in limine.

7           Number 1 is denied. Settlements with the DEA in West 8       Virginia may be relevant.

9           Number 2, nonparty corporate representatives

13:09:06 10       testifying to matters outside their personal knowledge, I'm 11       denying that without prejudice. But, obviously, a witness

12       may only testify to evidence within his or her personal

13       knowledge. If the witness is a corporate representative and 14       the witness knows from his or her experience what their own

13:09:31 15       company's practice is, they can testify to that, but they

16       can't speculate as to practices they don't know about or

17       something in some other department, or from a period of time

18       they don't know about.

19           I think everyone knows that.

13:09:47 20       All right. Evidence of criminal indictments and 21       investigations without corresponding proof of final judgment

22       or conviction. It's granted as to indictments that did not 23       lead to a conviction.

24           It's denied as to general criminal investigations,

13:10:05 25       unless the source of the information or other circumstances

1 lack trustworthiness.

2 Number 4, prohibit plaintiffs from stating expressly 3 or suggesting that the jury may infer that an older document 4 never existed just because it cannot be found.

13:10:35 5 I'm denying this. This is -- this is for the jury.
6 If either sides wants to ask the jury to draw conclusions 7 from the fact that a document can't be found, they can make 8 the argument. The jury can draw whatever conclusion it 9 wishes.

13:10:51 10 Number 5, evidence or arguments suggesting 11 distributors committed a fraud on the DEA. Well, we don't 12 have a fraud on the DEA claim here, so plaintiffs can't 13 argue that there's a fraud on the DEA. But it's open game, 14 open season on what DEA did or didn't do, or what the 13:11:24 15 parties produced to DEA.

16 Number 6 ties in with something I said before, 17 references broadly and generally to defendants. So I'm 18 going to caution the plaintiffs that when -- if they mean 19 argument or a question or -- question to apply to all 13:11:46 20 defendants, fine; but if not, they're not just to lump them 21 all in, they're to be specific.

22 Number 7, evidence and arguments about RICO predicates
23 that plaintiffs did not identify in their discovery 24 responses, that's denied.

13:12:07 25 Number 8 is denied.

1 All right. Turning to Teva and Actavis motions in 2 limine.

3 Number one, reference to the Cephalon misdemeanor 4 plea, that's denied.

13:12:26 5 Reference to off-label promotion is denied. Reference 6 to the civil settlement between Cephalon and the Office of 7 Inspector General along with the settlement of the opioid 8 action brought by the Oklahoma attorney general, that's 9 denied.

13:12:42 10 Evidence of any harm that may have occurred outside of 11 these two counties is denied.

12 Evidence of market relating shipments outside of these 13 two counties is denied.

14 Evidence regarding Teva's financial support of 13:12:57 15 third-party groups is denied, it may be relevant.

16 Testimony from Russell Portenoy is denied, but it's 17 probably moot because I'm not sure he's going to be 18 appearing.

19 Number eight, argument that the Actavis generic 13:13:17 20 defendants should have made additional warnings regarding 21 their generic medicines or should have stopped selling them 22 is granted in part and denied in part.

23 Under the Supreme Court established law, a defendant
24 doesn't have to stop selling. Defendants don't have to stop 13:13:39 25 selling, so no one can argue that they should have or were

1 required to. But any evidence that any defendant engaged in 2 false marketing, that's an essential part of the plaintiffs' 3 claim. That can come in.

4 All right. I'm going to grant 9 and 10. The purchase 13:14:22 5 price paid by Teva for Actavis I think is more prejudicial 6 than probative, so it's out. And any reference to the 7 settlement agreement between Teva and Allergan, that's 8 granted, unopposed.

9 All right. I think that takes care of all the motions 13:14:44 10 in limine.

11 All right. Obviously, I've given each side 100 hours 12 so we get this trial to the jury well before Christmas.
13 Cardinal has raised a concern that it should get some 14 additional time because so many of the Cardinal witnesses 13:15:12 15 are going to be testifying live because it's within 16 100 miles of the Northern District of Ohio.

17 And the Court has some sympathy for Cardinal's 18 argument. Obviously, you know, witnesses that are appearing 19 by deposition, their testimony is limited. It's going to be 13:15:34 20 limited to certain excerpts, and there won't be any live 21 cross-examination.

22 I'm not -- I mean, the 100 hours is for the defendants
23 to use as they please. I'm not saying that each defendant 24 has to have, you know, 16 and a half hours or whatever. So 13:15:53 25 I think that the testimony that -- that the hours should be

1 used fairly, and obviously there needs to be and likely need 2 to be more cross-examination of witnesses that are appearing 3 live.

4 But I'm not going to -- I'm going to suggest that 13:16:10 5 that's something for the defendants to work out among 6 themselves. I'm not going to give Cardinal more hours or 7 direct that the defendants allocate more to Cardinal, but 8 I'm suggesting that everyone needs to be fair about that.

9 I think Special Master Cohen has dealt with how he 13:16:31 10 wants the parties to deal with these deposition excerpt
11 objections, to get them to him on a rolling basis. Everyone 12 knows when the witnesses will appear, and he will deal with 13 that.

14 All right. There were objections to witnesses. There 13:16:52 15 were two or three that came in very late, and may be I can 16 deal with them. If I can deal with them quickly now, I 17 will.

18 All right. The first one, this is a third-party 19 witness. David Gustin filed a motion to quash the 13:17:14 20 plaintiffs' subpoena that he appear and testify.

21 All right. Mr. Gustin is a former employee of 22 McKesson. He retired in 2016. He was director of 23 regulatory affairs for the central region in early 2014. He 24 gave a seven-hour videotape deposition in August of 2018, 13:17:42 25 500-page deposition.

1           On March 21st of this year, Mr. Gustin was indicted in 2           the Eastern District of Kentucky, a federal indictment on a 3           felony charge alleging conspiracy with unnamed 4           coconspirators to distribute and dispense a quantity of 13:18:02 5           pills containing controlled substances between 2008 and 6           2016.

7           Mr. Gustin has represented through counsel that he 8           will exercise his Fifth Amendment right if he testifies.

9           Now, I always took the position when I was a 13:18:24 10           prosecutor that it was improper and prejudicial just to 11           bring a witness in to a trial or jury to take the Fifth when 12           everyone knew he was going to take the Fifth.

13           Can the plaintiffs articulate why it would be more 14           probative than prejudicial to bring in Mr. Gustin just to 13:18:47 15           take the Fifth? He's a former employee of McKesson. You 16           have his deposition. You can seek to use his deposition.
17           He's clearly an unavailable witness. He certainly has a 18           Fifth Amendment right, and if anyone would challenge it, I 19           most likely would overrule that challenge.

13:19:09 20           Can you articulate to me why it won't be unfairly 21           prejudicial to him and to McKesson to bring him in and take 22           the Fifth?

23                       MR. WEINBERGER: Your Honor, Peter Weinberger
24           on behalf of plaintiffs. He doesn't have a right to 13:19:25 25           exercise his Fifth Amendment rights when he is not a

1 defendant in the civil action. And so I understand your 2 analysis, Your Honor, but he can be compelled to testify, 3 and it is our preference that he respond to the subpoena,
4 and that we not have to play a seven-hour deposition.

13:19:46 5 THE COURT: Well, I'm not sure -- you
6 think -- whatever testimony he's given, he's given. All 7 right? Anyone can use that. All right?

8 But now he has a present Fifth Amendment right because 9 he's facing criminal indictment, and he's going to be asked 13:20:05 10 questions about the conduct during the time period when he 11 worked for McKesson during the indictment. You can 12 challenge that, but I'm the one who would have to rule on 13 the challenge, and I think you'd have a very, very uphill 14 battle.

13:20:19 15 If you want to go through that, you can. And if I, 16 you know -- but if I -- if you want to challenge his 17 assertion of the Fifth Amendment privilege, we're going to 18 do that one night. We're not going to take up trial time, 19 and -- but I think you're going to lose. He's got a Fifth 13:20:39 20 Amendment right. If you're going to be asking him about 21 anything he did during the time frame of that indictment, 22 and I'm sure you are -- you're not going to be worried about 23 what he did in 2003 or something -- I'm going to sustain his 24 privilege.

13:20:56 25 I think we're going to leave it -- unless you can

1 articulate in writing why he does not have a Fifth Amendment 2 privilege to answer questions about conduct that forms the 3 basis of the indictment, I'm going to quash it. But I'll 4 wait for your response.

13:21:19 5 MR. SHKOLNIK: Judge Polster, Hunter Shkolnik.

6 Just if I can add to that. In situations like this,
7 one option is that there's a stipulation that if the witness 8 was called and asked about any of these facts, he would 9 exercise his right under the Fifth Amendment, and it's a 13:21:34 10 stipulation that we can rely upon and utilize as part of our 11 evidence in chief. We're entitled to it.

12 THE COURT: But the only evidence then would 13 be some prejudice that a former employee of McKesson is 14 saying the Fifth. That's the whole point.

13:21:49 15 MR. SHKOLNIK: But the fact --

16 THE COURT: You think -- I mean, I don't think 17 you can use against McKesson in this trial the fact that a 18 retired employee whose now been indicted is exercising his 19 Fifth Amendment right, the same way I don't think you can 13:22:08 20 introduce against McKesson the fact that this guy has been 21 indicted and say, well, that somehow shows that McKesson did 22 something wrong.

23 MR. SHKOLNIK: Well, the indictment goes 24 directly to his job title and the distribution, which serves 13:22:21 25 as the basis of the claims.

1 THE COURT: I understand. An indictment is 2 only an allegation. That's the same reason I ruled on these 3 motions in limine. You can't just introduce evidence of 4 indictments that didn't lead to convictions. That's unfair.

13:22:38 5 So unless the plaintiffs can convince me in writing, 6 clearly, that Mr. Gustin doesn't have a valid Fifth 7 Amendment right, I'm going to grant the motion to quash.

8 All right. Then we've got Cardinal Health's motion to 9 quash the trial subpoena of Jennifer Norris, who is 13:23:00 10 Cardinal's in-house counsel.

11 All right. I haven't read her deposition, all right?
12 I don't know what the plaintiffs are going to ask her.
13 Clearly, she can be subpoenaed to testify to anything within 14 her personal knowledge that's not privileged, and personal 13:23:25 15 knowledge could include her knowledge of Cardinal's general 16 practice and procedures. All right. That's her personal 17 knowledge. Anything beyond that would be speculation.

18 So I don't know -- you know, I think everyone knows 19 that. So I'm not going to quash the subpoena, because she 13:23:45 20 may have relevant testimony in this case which the 21 plaintiffs, if they want to have her live, can ask.

22 But if they ask her to guess or speculate, the 23 objection is going to be sustained.

24 MS. MAINIGI: Enu Mainigi for Cardinal. If I 13:24:02 25 may address that.

1 Miss Norris was not a percipient witness with anything 2 having to do with anti-diversion. She did serve as the 3 corporate representative, and in that capacity, she learned 4 information for the purpose of providing 30(b)(6) testimony.
13:24:24 5 She has now been issued a trial subpoena to appear live 6 personally.

7 So she does not have personal knowledge, Your Honor, 8 she served as the 30(b)(6).

9 THE COURT: Well, Ms. Mainigi, I don't have 13:24:40 10 any reason to doubt what you're saying. I don't know what 11 the plaintiffs are going to ask her. They can subpoena 12 anyone they want. They know they can't ask someone to guess 13 or speculate. They're pretty experienced lawyers. They 14 know I'm not going to allow a witness to guess or speculate 13:24:55 15 or repeat hearsay, what someone told him or her, so I'm 16 assuming they're calling her to ask permissible questions, 17 the same way I'm assuming your witnesses, when you call 18 them, you intend to ask them admissible questions.

19 So I'm denying the motion to quash the subpoena on the 13:25:17 20 assumption that the plaintiffs understand the Rules of 21 Evidence.

22 MR. WEINBERGER: Your Honor, Peter Weinberger
23 again. I just want to note for the record, we did file a 24 written response with respect to the Gustin issue.

13:25:35 25 THE COURT: I guess I didn't see it. Anyway,

1 I'm denying the motion to quash. Obviously, you can only 2 ask -- well, you filed something on Gustin?

3 MR. WEINBERGER: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Well, can you articulate why you 13:25:50 5 don't think he has a Fifth Amendment privilege?

6 MR. WEINBERGER: Well, he may have a Fifth 7 Amendment privilege, but not one that he can assert in this 8 action. That's our point, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Well, that wouldn't be much of a 13:26:08 10 Fifth Amendment privilege, Mr. Weinberger.

11 MR. WEINBERGER: It has to do with whether or 12 not he has been civilly sued in this case, which he has not.
13 And I think --

14 THE COURT: But that has nothing to do -- his 13:26:23 15 Fifth Amendment privilege, he just needs a well-founded 16 belief that answers to these questions could, you know, 17 could hurt him, you know, could be used against him in a 18 criminal investigation, and he's under indictment. It's not 19 a guess or a speculation. He's under indictment, and you're 13:26:46 20 going to be asking him questions about that same period.

21 All right. I'm going to grant that motion.

22 MS. SINGER: Linda Singer for the plaintiffs.
23 Just to speak to the arguments that were made in the motion, 24 if I may, Your Honor, without speaking to whether he has a 13:27:01 25 right to invoke a Fifth Amendment privilege, I think

1 plaintiffs have argued with case law support in its motion, 2 which I do not have in front of me, unfortunately, that a 3 witness taking a Fifth Amendment privilege which applies in 4 a criminal proceeding, the plaintiffs are still entitled to 13:27:19 5 claim an adverse inference in the civil litigation.

6 Mr. Gustin's responsibilities go directly to 7 McKesson's enforcement responsibilities that are at issue in 8 this case. And the fact that he cannot get up and testify 9 as to what he did or didn't do, as Your Honor has said, in 13:27:39 10 that capacity at McKesson goes directly to plaintiffs' 11 claims, and the jury is entitled to make an inference.

12 THE COURT: All right. I think it is far more 13 prejudicial than probative, particularly since you have a 14 500-page deposition. You have the testimony, and you can 13:27:56 15 put into evidence anything he testified to about what he did 16 or didn't do, assuming it's within his personal knowledge, 17 about all those things. You've got his answers.

18 So I'm granting that motion, that motion to quash is 19 granted.

13:28:30 20 All right. I've already told the parties -- I'm going 21 to reiterate, we're not going to be hopefully cluttering up 22 this trial about objections to the admissibility of 23 documents on grounds of authenticity. And if we do, and the 24 objection is denied, I'm going to charge all that time to 13:28:49 25 the party that objected. So both sides are aware of that.

1           There was a motion that was filed this week by some or 2           all of defendants asking me to order lawyers and witnesses 3           not to discuss this case outside of the courtroom.

4           I mean, we already have it for lawyers. Specifically, 13:29:51 5           it was to preclude attorneys and witnesses from discussing 6           this case outside of the courtroom.

7           Certainly, my -- does anyone think there's a reason
8           for the Court not to issue this order? I'm concerned -- I 9           mean, I'm not sequestering this jury. There's already been 13:30:19 10           a tremendous amount of publicity about this, all right. The 11           jury is going to hear from the lawyers what the lawyers need 12           to tell them with opening statements, closing arguments.
13           They'll hear the questions. They'll hear from the witnesses 14           what the witnesses need to tell them from their testimony.

13:30:38 15           Certainly, lawyers shouldn't be talking to the press 16           about the case, and I don't think witnesses should be 17           either. I don't think I've ever gagged witnesses, though, 18           and then there's a question of should it apply to parties.

19           And the problem is, the plaintiffs are public 13:30:59 20           officials, and so what does everyone think about this?

21                       MR. SHKOLNIK: Your Honor, on behalf of 22           Cuyahoga County, I think I feel comfortable. We just spoke 23           with counsel. We don't have intentions of making statements 24           regarding the trial, the case, but certainly, as government 13:31:26 25           officials and the government, if issues related to opioids

1 do come up, to curtail the government or its representatives 2 or its officials from talking about it, I think that's too 3 far --

4 THE COURT: Mr. Shkolnik, no way am I going to 13:31:42 5 try and curtail a public official's right to, you know, to 6 deal with the opioid crisis or talk about it.

7 I think the defendants' motion had to do with, like, 8 commenting on the trial or adding to their testimony, or 9 saying, you know, "I thought it was" you know what. If they 13:32:05 10 want to criticize me, that's fine. I don't care. But 11 something having to do with directly commenting on what 12 happened in the courtroom, that's what I'm talking about.

13 MR. SHKOLNIK: And I understood that, 14 Your Honor.

13:32:18 15 The county has no problem with not commenting upon the 16 trial and what is happening here.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. SHKOLNIK: I just wanted to make that --

19 THE COURT: All right. I think I'm going to 13:32:30 20 issue that order. I don't want there to be any comment, 21 discussion by attorneys, parties, and witnesses, about 22 what's happened in the courtroom.

23 All right. Everyone has worked extremely hard and 24 done, I think, a terrific job in getting this case ready for 13:33:04 25 trial.

1           The one aspect where I'm disappointed is the fact that 2 we are about to begin this trial, and we don't have any 3 semblance of final jury instructions. The parties only 4 agreed on my boilerplate, which I didn't ask agreement about 13:33:26 5 that. We sent that out so you wouldn't have to worry about 6 that.

7           The submissions would lead one to conclude that this 8 is the first civil RICO trial in this country. It obviously 9 isn't, or the first public nuisance trial in any court in 13:33:43 10 Ohio, which it's not.

11           And, you know, as a result, I didn't need those jury 12 instructions for myself at the beginning. You all needed 13 them. When I was a trial lawyer, I wanted to know what the 14 law was before the case started, not after the evidence 13:33:58 15 submissions were in, and I'm encouraging the parties who are 16 here to urge their lawyers to work constructively.

17           The idea is not to gain these instructions or get 18 every last ounce of argument in them. A jury instruction is 19 to be conservative. By conservative, I mean it's what the 13:34:19 20 law is, not what the law might be or should be. The law in 21 this district, this circuit, this country, what it is on 22 these issues.

23           You want an instruction that's going to be affirmed 24 one way or the another; in other words, it's accurate. It's 13:34:34 25 not argument, it's accurate. And you want it as clear as

1 possible to laypersons, which means as little legalese as 2 possible. Some is inevitable, it's legal instructions.
3 That's what it should be.

4 And I know that if both sides, all sides work 13:34:52 5 constructively, they can produce instructions that are 6 90 percent agreed upon. Yes, there may be a couple critical 7 legal issues I'm going to have to rule on, okay, but I've 8 never started a trial where there was nothing agreed on.

9 So as it now stands, you know, I'm going to be working 13:35:11 10 on it. And if it takes two months it will take two months, 11 and it won't be good for either side. But I'm making it 12 clear now on the record that both sides, all parties, 13 plaintiffs and the defendants, have waived any objection 14 they have to not getting timely jury instructions, because 13:35:28 15 it's of your own doing, their own doing.

16 You know, one of the key issues is joint and several 17 liability. I'm going to have to decide that. I believe 18 that the law imposes joint and several liability, but I'll 19 certainly have to carefully look at that. But, again, I 13:35:49 20 will work on that. If we've got to do it all ourselves from 21 scratch, which is the way it is now, it's going to take a 22 long time.

23 So, again, I would encourage some lawyers who aren't 24 going to be in this courtroom daily doing the witnesses to 13:36:06 25 work together, and to the extent you can submit anything

1 that you agree upon, the odds are 99.9 percent that I'm 2 going to give it, so I would encourage that.

3 I am working on preliminary jury instructions right 4 now, and I've got to tell the parties something -- the 13:36:28 5 jurors something about what they're going to be doing, what 6 the claims are, and what they're going to have to consider.

7 And I'm going to have it to do it somewhat generally, 8 and I will get that out to the parties this week so you can 9 look at them. And if you think there's anything, you know, 13:36:48 10 that's just flat out wrong, let me know. I don't want to 11 create an error, but, again, it's preliminary instructions.
12 So I'll get those out as soon as I can in a short turnaround 13 time.

14 All right. We have some stipulations. I guess I need 13:37:05 15 to know from all of you what you want me to do with them.

16 In some trials, the parties have wanted the judge to 17 read them all at the beginning or all at the end, or at 18 certain points; or sometimes the lawyers read them, you 19 know, in conjunction with a particular witness. I really 13:37:24 20 don't care, I just want to know.

21 And I generally include those in the final 22 instructions, just so the jury is reminded of it, but you 23 all have to figure out, you know, how you want to -- what 24 you want to do with those.

13:37:39 25 And I'll take my cue from you.

1 LAW CLERK: Right now we've got them in the 2 preliminary instructions.

3 THE COURT: Well, I don't know. I mean, one
4 idea I thought of would be to actually give each juror a 13:38:00 5 copy of them that they can keep and have. I mean, if I read 6 off 20 stipulations, guess what? After number one or two, 7 they're going to glaze over and not know what it counts for.

8 A stipulation only makes sense in the context of some 9 testimony or documents. So what do you all think about 13:38:21 10 giving each juror a printed copy of them?

11 I give each juror a copy of the final jury 12 instructions at the end. I don't give them the preliminary 13 instructions, but they're going to take back into their 14 room -- and I do that because, believe it or not, I had a 13:38:38 15 case where I was trying the case, and the judge gave one 16 copy, and the foreperson monopolized it and didn't show it 17 to anyone else.

18 It's hard to fathom, but it did happen to me. So when 19 I became a judge, every juror is going to get his or her own 13:38:58 20 copy. But what do you think about getting the copies.

21 MR. LANIER: Your Honor, Mark Lanier for the 22 plaintiffs. Currently we have scheduled a meeting with 23 Special Master Cohen at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday to deal with 24 exhibit issues.

13:39:11 25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. LANIER: If the Court would indulge us, 2 we'll communicate with defense counsel between now and then,
3 and if we can't come up with an agreement deal with it with 4 the special master on Sunday.

13:39:23 5 THE COURT: Okay. If I just start off the 6 trial by reading 20 stipulations, Mr. Lanier, it's really a 7 waste.

8 MR. LANIER: Agreed.

9 THE COURT: At the end it may be useful with 13:39:34 10 the -- you know, after the summary and everything, but, so, 11 I'll take my cue from you.

12 MR. LANIER: Thank you, Judge.

13 All right. I'm reminding everyone that in terms of 14 our schedule, it looks like next Monday we'll be completely 13:39:55 15 opening statements. I don't think there will be time for 16 any witnesses. But we'll start with the testimony on 17 Tuesday.

18 There is no trial next Friday, October 25th. There's 19 no trial Monday, November the 11th, that being Veterans Day.
13:40:11 20 It's a federal holiday. And Thanksgiving week, the last 21 week of November, we're in trial only Monday and Tuesday, 22 the 25th and 26th.

23 So I'm going to tell all of the jurors that, so they 24 know.

13:40:33 25 I think I've got everything on my list. But now, is

1       there anything that -- and let me say, with the jury, what 2       I'm going to do is, we're bringing in 50 tomorrow, and I've 3       got some questions for the whole panel which I will ask.
4       That's my customary practice.

13:40:59 5           Then I will let each side take a short period of time 6       to ask any additional questions, or maybe the same ones if 7       you want to ask it in a different way. That's fine.

8           And then if there are questions often from 9       the -- maybe from the questionnaire that we want to question 13:41:25 10      individual jurors, since there are so many, just having 11      everyone congregate at the sidebar isn't very efficient, and 12      so I would bring the jurors into my chambers with just one 13      representative from each party, for no more than five 14      minutes of questioning.

13:41:41 15           And then we'll have for cause challenges, which I'll 16      deal with on the record, to any of the 50. And if after 17      those for cause challenges we have at least 24 jurors, I 18      will then have the parties do their peremptory challenges.
19      We have up to six for the plaintiffs, up to six for the 13:42:11 20      defendants. I want to end up with 12, so we need 24, and 21      we'll do it.

22           If we don't have 24, let's say we have only 20, what 23      we'll do is I'll direct those 20 to come back Thursday, and 24      we'll start up the process with the next 50. And, you know, 13:42:36 25      when it's clear we'll have -- you know, then we'll have some

1 for cause challenges, and then I guess we'll have to do the 2 peremptories with the 20 left from day one and however is 3 left with day two, is what we'll do. That's the way we'll 4 do it.

13:42:56 5 And I believe based on the very good and excellent 6 work we did last week, it won't take more than two days to 7 pick the jury. We may be able to do it just in one.

8 But the process has worked very well and everyone 9 worked very hard, and I want to appreciate that cooperation, 13:43:15 10 and we excused a lot of jurors who clearly should have been 11 excused.

12 Okay. Anything that any counsel for any of the 13 parties wish to raise?

14 MR. WEINBERGER: Yes, Your Honor. On behalf
13:43:31 15 of plaintiffs, Peter Weinberger.

16 On the voir dire issue, so maybe this is -- maybe I'm 17 wrongly assuming, but I'm assuming that we're going to be 18 able to voir dire the entire panel.

19 THE COURT: Correct. I'm going to be asking 13:43:44 20 my questions of, Mr. Weinberger, of the 50, and you can 21 address your questions to the whole 50, or you can say, 22 juror number 33, what do you think of this; either way.
23 And, yes, and challenges for cause will be to the whole 50
24 that we're having Wednesday, right.

13:44:05 25 MR. WEINBERGER: And when we exercise

1 peremptories, is it going to be with respect to the first 12 2 in the box?

3 THE COURT: You can exercise your peremptory
4 on anyone. I mean, you only have six. If you want to use 13:44:18 5 your six on jurors 45 through 50, you can.

6 And the way I do it, just say we had 12 in the box, 7 and someone strikes number 6, well, then, I bring up the 8 first -- the next numbered juror, and he or she takes the 9 spot of number 6. And we're going to end up with 12.

13:44:47 10 And the way I work it, whoever is left -- hopefully 11 all 12 are here at the end of the trial, and if so, we have 12 12 deliberate. If someone has gotten sick or had a family 13 emergency we have only 11, and then we have only 11. But 14 any one of the 12 stays on.

13:45:05 15 MR. WEINBERGER: So tomorrow we'll know sort 16 of the seating chart, you know, where is the next juror up 17 sitting at?

18 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Weinberger, you'll know, 19 and you probably won't know until right then. They'll come 13:45:19 20 in, and they'll have a name and number, and we'll know. I 21 mean, we'll all have the questionnaires, so we'll know then.

22 The jury department will be doing that randomly.
23 You'll know tonight which are the 50, and then they'll come 24 in, and then we'll have to sort our questionnaires so we 13:45:35 25 know who is seated where.

1 MR. WEINBERGER: And in terms of time for each
2 side for voir dire questioning, Your Honor?

3 THE COURT: Well, what do you think is 4 reasonable? I normally don't allow a lot: 15, 20 minutes is 13:45:56 5 what I'm thinking. Because, again, these jurors have been 6 asked a lot of questions, a lot of very good probing 7 questions, and we have their answers.

8 And obviously, if a juror has expressed on his or her 9 questionnaire some hesitation, some uncertainty in the 13:46:16 10 question, do you believe you can be fair and impartial, I'm 11 not going to question this juror out in this room. That's 12 what I'm going to ask that juror back in my chambers.

13 So I'm thinking maybe 20 minutes for the plaintiffs, 14 20 minutes for the defendants on, you know, other questions, 13:46:35 15 or repeating my questions.

16 MR. LANIER: Mark Lanier for plaintiffs.

17 If I understand your process right, you don't want us 18 to get answers in the global voir dire that would 19 commit -- that would be sufficient for cause. If we look 13:46:58 20 like we've got someone who may have a for cause reason --

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MR. LANIER: -- then we take them back
23 individually, and not try to mess up the whole panel.

24 THE COURT: That's the whole point, correct, 13:47:11 25 Mr. Lanier, of doing it back there.

1           Obviously, I don't want some juror to blurt out why he 2           or she might have a problem, and everyone is going to --

3           MR. LANIER: Hear it.

4           THE COURT: One of two things will happen. It 13:47:24 5           may taint everyone, or someone may think, hah, that's how 6           I'll get off this jury. See what number 33 said? That's 7           me, too.

8           MR. LANIER: In light of that, if that's the 9           approach, then the 20 minutes should be valid for us to get 13:47:38 10           the questions we need to get out to elicit to know who to 11           take back to chambers.

12           THE COURT: That's the idea. Or, you know, 13           introduce yourself, or there's some general things you want 14           to throw out there, that's what it for.

13:47:53 15           MS. MAINIGI: Your Honor, may I ask a 16           follow-up? Enu Mainigi for Cardinal.

17           As I understood it, each one of the 50 will be taken 18           back for individual voir dire; is that correct?

19           THE COURT: I think so; or maybe to save time, 13:48:08 20           if no one has a reason to do it, then I won't. I mean, I've 21           been going back and forth as to whether we just bring 22           everyone back just to bring everyone back, or if there's 23           absolutely nothing on the questionnaire that creates any 24           issue, I don't know. I mean, do you have a strong opinion 13:48:38 25           either way?

1 MS. MAINIGI: I do, Your Honor, on behalf of 2 Cardinal. We had understood that each individual juror 3 would be invited back, and it may be that one juror, we're 4 going to be done with them in 30 seconds because no one has 13:48:51 5 any questions; but we do think we need that opportunity to 6 ask those questions, especially if we're getting 20 minutes 7 on the front end.

8 THE COURT: I may do it -- I may do it, if not 9 for that reason, I don't want any of the jurors to feel like 13:49:08 10 there was something wrong with them and they, you know, or 11 other jurors wondering, well, why did the Judge talk to him 12 and not me, or her or not me.

13 So I think probably out of fairness, I think it makes 14 sense to bring everyone back even if it turns out it's 13:49:26 15 really quick and nothing to ask.

16 I think it looks better, so we'll follow your 17 suggestion.

18 MS. MAINIGI: Thank you.

19 MR. NICHOLAS: Your Honor, Bob Nicholas from 13:49:35 20 AmerisourceBergen. I have a follow-up question on that --

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. NICHOLAS: -- which is when jurors are 23 taken back individually, are we going to be making our 24 strike motions -- our cause motions back -- you know, one by 13:49:48 25 one, or are you bringing them all back and then we do it at 1 the end?

2 THE COURT: Well, I think what's efficient, 3 Mr. Nicholas, is that after we finish asking the juror the 4 questions, the juror goes back, and then I think I might 13:50:11 5 say, does anyone feel this juror should be excused for 6 cause. And I'll take it up right then, right there, when 7 we're fresh on it, rather than waiting what could be an hour
8 or something, and then going back to Juror Number 23. I 9 think that's more efficient, and I think that's what we'll 13:50:30 10 do, and I'll rule on it. And if no one has a challenge for 11 cause, then that's quick. And if someone does, well, then, 12 I'll rule on it.

13 I think that makes sense, because what that juror has 14 said and how he or she has said it will be fresh in 13:50:47 15 everyone's mind, and it's the way to do it.

16 MR. NICHOLAS: I would agree.

17 MR. WEINBERGER: Your Honor, a couple of more 18 things on the plaintiffs' side.

19 As I understood your earlier ruling, you were allowing 13:51:05 20 each of the defendants to have a lawyer back and 21 interviewing an individual juror, and you were allowing us 22 one lawyer per plaintiff?

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. WEINBERGER: Can we have three lawyers on 13:51:20 25 our side? There's going to be six lawyers --

1 THE COURT: All right. You can have three.
2 It's all right, two or three. I didn't want to overwhelm
3 the -- I don't want the juror to feel uncomfortable.

4 Okay. All right. Any --

13:51:41 5 MR. WEINBERGER: Yes, Your Honor. Sorry, 6 I'm --

7 THE COURT: No. I understand, Mr. Weinberger, 8 these aren't all your questions. You might have received 9 some from colleagues. You're a spokesperson.

13:51:52 10 (Overlapping speakers.)

11 MR. WEINBERGER: I spent all night --

12 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Mea culpa.

13 THE COURT: That's all right.

14 MR. WEINBERGER: We've been discussing with 13:52:02 15 Special Master Cohen the issue of the length of the opening 16 statements, and we've made a couple of proposals.

17 Have you made a ruling on that, Your Honor?

18 THE COURT: I thought we did.

19 LAW CLERK: We did.

13:52:21 20 THE COURT: Yeah, I thought we did. I even 21 brought it out with me.

22 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Judge, there were three 23 versions that were floating through the e-mail, and all of 24 the parties agreed on what was called Version 3.

13:52:35 25 THE COURT: Well, I'll just put it on. It's

1 my understanding that everyone agreed on two and a quarter 2 hours total for plaintiffs, and 30 minutes for each 3 defendant family, so that would be 6 times 30 is 3 hours 4 total.

13:52:49 5 Now, that's a long opening statement for plaintiffs, 6 and I know, Mr. Lanier, you have a very fine reputation, but 7 I don't know too many people who can keep anyone's attention 8 for two and a quarter hours. I've seen people who have 9 tried, and they didn't do too well.

13:53:15 10 So if you don't want to use all two and a quarter 11 hours, that's fine with me, and you may be helping your 12 clients. But the parties agreed on it, so I'm not going to 13 pull the trapdoor on you.

14 MR. LANIER: Thank you, Judge.

13:53:34 15 MR. WEINBERGER: Your Honor, we submitted an 16 e-mail to you with respect to the issue of live video 17 streaming of the proceedings to a remote location, and we 18 learned after that that the defendants have objection to 19 that because of security issues.

13:53:54 20 And not to go through all of the details --

21 THE COURT: On that, Mr. Weinberger -- I don't 22 want to cut you off. I'm not certain that the Court has 23 ever permitted like live streaming of a trial outside of the 24 courtroom. We're live streaming inside the courtroom to the 13:54:19 25 overflow rooms, two of them, and I hope people can hear and 1 see.

2 I mean, is it working okay in those other courtrooms?

3 DEPUTY CLERK: There wasn't anyone there.

4 THE COURT: Oh, there wasn't anyone there. I

13:54:33 5 thought of it late. All right. I thought of it late.

6 But I don't think we've ever had actual live streaming
7 to a location outside of the courtroom. Is that right?
8 Courthouse. We've never done it, and I'm not sure it's even 9 permissible.

13:55:00 10 MR. WEINBERGER: So what our hope is, and it 11 has to do with room in the courthouse and, you know, both 12 sides have large teams.

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MR. WEINBERGER: And we would want to live 13:55:13 15 stream it just to one location outside of the courthouse.
16 And I don't have the details now, but I have been assured by 17 my tech person, who has been in contact with Court Connect 18 on this, that it can be done in a way that assures both 19 sides that it's secure, and so there won't be a problem with 13:55:39 20 security. It will help, and it has to do, frankly, Your 21 Honor, with the whole logistics and the large teams that we 22 have.

23 So let me address another issue that relates to that.

24 THE COURT: Well, let's stick with -- I mean, 13:55:55 25 the defendants had -- I mean, are you proposing while the

1 defendants don't want to do it, you just want to do it for 2 your side?

3 MR. WEINBERGER: Right. Right.

4 And, again, I can -- look. You ordered us to, earlier 13:56:11 5 on in this case, not to release ARCOS data. And despite the 6 fact that it was shared with large numbers of people on our 7 side, it never got leaked out.

8 You know, I think that's a demonstration that you can 9 trust the lawyers on our side to, with the security of this 13:56:32 10 video feed, and it's just going to one location, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Well, look. It's just come up.
12 To say I'm not a technological expert would be a gross 13 understatement.

14 I can understand, we've got lots of lawyers. Everyone 13:56:52 15 can't fit in the courtroom. I mean, even being in -- you 16 know, coming in the overflow room, as a principal matter, if 17 there's a secure way for only lawyers to see it, I don't 18 have any problem with it. I don't know if it can be done 19 securely. At least if it's done, both sides should have it.

13:57:15 20 MS. MAINIGI: Your Honor, Enu Mainigi for 21 Cardinal Health.

22 As Your Honor is aware, we do object to the live 23 streaming outside the courtroom. We do think that there's 24 too much room for abuse. We're not suggesting at all that 13:57:31 25 plaintiffs would do that.

1 THE COURT: Well, how could it be abused?

2 MS. MAINIGI: Well, we are worried that it
3 could be taped. We're worried you can take your phone and 4 tape it. As I understand it, in the courtroom, people are 13:57:43 5 not going to be allowed to videotape what's on stream.

6 THE COURT: Right. No one can walk in with 7 their cell phone and turn it on.

8 MS. MAINIGI: But that cannot be prevented if 9 you're live streaming to the Ritz, for example. You 13:57:57 10 can't --

11 THE COURT: Well, that's a good point.

12 MS. MAINIGI: You can't monitor people walking 13 in and out of the war room that are not lawyers. People, 14 witnesses who have been sequestered, perhaps, Your Honor -- 13:58:11 15 and I know we haven't necessarily gotten to that -- those 16 witnesses could inadvertently be wandering through.

17 We think there's way too much room for abuse here, so 18 I think it is for good reason that this Court has never 19 allowed live streaming outside the courtroom.

13:58:29 20 THE COURT: Well, to be fair, Ms. Mainigi, no
21 one has ever asked me to do it. I haven't refused to, it 22 never came up, so I never had to deal with it.

23 MR. WEINBERGER: So let me tell you, so we 24 have an office in the Old Post Office building so we're not 13:58:47 25 talking about the Ritz, Your Honor. And we can represent to

1 the Court that where we would video stream it into that 2 office would be a segregated room with no phones and no 3 recording equipment. And if we need to hire a deputy to 4 assure the defense that we're following whatever order comes 13:59:09 5 out of the Court, we're happy to do that.

6 THE COURT: So, you know, I mean --

7 MS. MAINIGI: Your Honor, it seems like a
8 whole lot of work and effort. I don't understand why all 9 the lawyers here --

13:59:21 10 THE COURT: Well, I mean, it --

11 MS. MAINIGI: -- cannot come to the courtroom 12 in the overflow courtroom. That's what everybody is 13 planning to do. That is what Your Honor indicated we needed 14 to do.

14:00:02 15 THE COURT: Well, since I've never done this, 16 I'm concerned. And particularly since the defendants are 17 objecting, I'm concerned about the security.

18 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Just so everybody is 19 clear, there are two --

14:00:19 20 THE COURT: And apparently, I've been reminded 21 that live streaming was discouraged at a Judges' meeting. I 22 must have not been paying attention at that meeting, or 23 maybe I was absent; but I'm concerned about it.

24 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: Judge, there are two 14:00:42 25 overflow courtrooms, and the wells in both of those

1 courtrooms are available for counsel.

2 THE COURT: Right. Counsel can sit there.

3 SPECIAL MASTER COHEN: The entire well.

4 THE COURT: You can sit there and work, do

14:00:53 5 whatever you want. The only thing you can't do a record.

6 DEPUTY CLERK: First come, first seated.

7 THE COURT: Right. But the point is, I mean,

8 you can -- that's what they are there for. That's why I

9 provided for two overflow courtrooms, to make sure, you

14:01:11 10 know, anyone will be able to sit. And there's a lot of 11 room. You see all the seats there. Those wells are empty.

12 So all those seats will be available. The jury box is 13 available. There should be plenty of room.

14 So I think we're not going to have the live streaming.

14:01:30 15 MR. WEINBERGER: All right. One follow-up

16 issue, Your Honor.

17 The directive that we heard is that, particularly in 18 here, we can't have our lawyers using laptops when they're

19 sitting behind the rail. And so people at the trial table

14:01:50 20 here are going to be communicating with people who have 21 laptops and smartphones to get exhibits, to plan for the 22 next day, et cetera, et cetera.

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. WEINBERGER: So we would ask the Court's 14:02:05 25 indulgence to allow the lawyers working with us, who are

1 lucky enough to get seated behind the jury rail in this 2 courtroom, to be able to use laptops and smartphones.
3 Obviously, turning off any sound or any -- it will also 4 facilitate that people won't be walking back and forth 14:02:27 5 between --

6 THE COURT: Right.

7 MR. WEINBERGER: -- the space behind the jury 8 rail and the trial tables.

9 MR. STOFFELMAYR: Your Honor, if I may, Kapsar 14:02:38 10 Stoffelmayr for Walgreens. I was asked on behalf of the 11 defendants to raise the same issue. We think we will be 12 able to be much more efficient, run a smoother operation.

13 THE COURT: Well, I do, too. I'm going to 14 trust lawyers. If the public says what are you doing; well, 14:02:56 15 they're on the trial team, and they're communicating with 16 each other, and rather than having to interrupt and walk 17 back and forth, and stuff. All right.

18 I trust all of you to not be secretly recording. I 19 mean, quite frankly, someone could have some device in their 14:03:11 20 briefcase or whatever, and no one would know.

21 LAW CLERK: We're not reserving seats.

22 THE COURT: I know. We're not reserving 23 seats, but I will allow lawyers working on this case.

24 I'll allow lawyers to do it in this courtroom so long 14:03:34 25 as they're not being obtrusive. There can't be typing

1 noise, tapping that's disruptive.

2 MR. STOFFELMAYR: Your Honor, can I just ask
3 that that ruling include at least one paralegal per party?
4 We were especially concerned about the exhibits.

14:03:50 5 LAW CLERK: Now we're talking about reserving 6 sheets.

7 THE COURT: No, we're not reserving any seats.
8 I will allow a paralegal to have a laptop to communicate 9 with the lawyers.

14:04:00 10 MR. STOFFELMAYR: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: But, again, you got to do it in a 12 way not to allow any sound. I'll allow that, we'll just do 13 it.

14 MR. WEINBERGER: And finally, Your Honor, 14:04:21 15 realizing that you have portable microphones, we are 16 wondering how strict you are in terms of having to stay at 17 the podium when we're giving opening, when we're inquiring 18 of a witness, et cetera.

19 THE COURT: All right. I'm not strict. The 14:04:41 20 only thing, I have two rules, Mr. Weinberger: One, you have 21 to be audible for our court reporter, wherever you are; and 22 number two, I don't let anyone, like, crowd into the jurors' 23 space. I've seen lawyers who have done that, and I've 24 required them to step back.

14:05:00 25 But if you, you know, so you've got to be -- those are

1 my only two rules. So if you want to --

2 DEPUTY CLERK: The batteries on the portable
3 microphones are not the greatest, and they don't last two 4 and a quarter hours. So --

14:05:23 5 THE COURT: That may be the way to limit you, 6 Mr. Lanier.

7 DEPUTY CLERK: So the only question would be, 8 if you're done, please put the one that you've used back on 9 the track, take another one, so they're constantly charging.

14:05:39 10 THE COURT: I wouldn't do that, intentionally
11 give you a short-life battery, Mr. Lanier.

12 But the point is, make sure that the court reporter 13 can hear you clearly and you're not crowding the jurors.
14 But I don't mind, some lawyers like to be at counsel table, 14:05:58 15 some at the podium, some like to walk around. It's okay.

16 MR. STOFFELMAYR: Your Honor, we had one 17 additional question. It's Kaspar Stoffelmayr, back in the 18 corner here.

19 We were just curious if the Court intended to issue a 14:06:21 20 Rule 16 order to exclude witnesses. And if so, our request 21 is that it would not include expert witnesses, so that 22 expert witnesses can be in court to watch testimony, but 23 fact witnesses could not.

24 THE COURT: No one has raised it, so I don't 14:06:37 25 generally in a civil case exclude witnesses, but if there's 1 a particular reason to do so someone should raise it with 2 me.

3 Mr. Stoffelmayr, no one has raised that, and I 4 generally don't issue it in a civil case as a --

14:06:58 5 MR. STOFFELMAYR: All right. Why don't we 6 discuss it --

7 THE COURT: Why don't you discuss it and see 8 what you want to do.

9 MR. STOFFELMAYR: Great. Thank you.

14:07:21 10 THE COURT: Okay. Special Master Cohen
11 advised me that -- well, I figured it would be around now.

12 The jury department has identified the 50 who we're 13 calling in now, so we can share that with counsel.

14 DEPUTY CLERK: I would just like to ask all of 14:07:39 15 you, if you do have any staff that manages to get a seat in 16 the Front Row, can you please have them bring some kind of 17 identification for the Court security officers so they know 18 that those people are allowed to use the laptops.

19 THE COURT: That's a good idea.

14:07:59 20 DEPUTY CLERK: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much.

22 We're adjourned.
